TROOPS AT SCENE

Want an Eight Hour Day, or They Will Cause Revolution.

ARE CRITICAL TIMES

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Paris, France, Oct. 8.—The French republic is on the verge of a national upheaval in the shape of a national coal strike of the thousands of miners now employed in the mines. The government is fearful of trouble and fears that a protracted coal strike such as is now going in the United States would mean that a revolution would follow.

By the end of next week if the weather continues favorable he will have his part of the work completed. The stone abutment which has been erected for the bridge over the cutting is a handsome piece of work and on a par with the latest construction in the same line which has been done on other parts of the Northwestern line. All through the rainy weather not a day has been lost, but the progress of the construction was seriously hindered.

The action taken by the state grand lodge was the culmination of a long struggle which the Masons have been making to establish an organized institution of charity in Illinois, which will be under the control of the Masonic order and for the benefit of its members. The plans for the building to be erected on the donated site will comprehend provision for the widows of Masons as well as for their orphaned children.

The doomed building was used as a storage and warehouse for plate-glass, being the local headquarters for the Pittsburgh company.

Chief Musham estimates the loss on building and contents at $250,000 to $300,000.

In investigating the cause of the fire the police concluded that it had been started by explosions of gasoline in the basement. A policeman said that he heard a rumbling noise in the building, and that several panes of glass were blown out of basement windows a short time after the fire was discovered.

The fire started in a peculiar manner. Shortly after midnight a workman lifted the top of his lantern to blow out the light. The atmosphere was heavily laden with gas and in an instant there was a flash, followed by a sheet of flame. The blaze was communicated to a small settling tank near by owned by J. S. Corbett. In an instant a derrick adjoining the tank was enveloped in fire, and with remarkable rapidity the flames spread to other derricks in the Hogg-Swayne tract, which comprises one of the largest sections in the oil field.

After going down that distance he began to drift, and 110 feet from the original shaft he struck a true fissure vein. The ore is pronounced by experts to be superior to that of the Joplin, Mo., district. Excitement runs high in the neighborhood and land about there has advanced to large prices. ## CHURCH ENJOYS ANNUAL REUNION

HARVEST HOME GATHERING AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

NEW ENGLAND SUPPER SERVED

Bountiful Repast, Followed by Program of Toasts—Year Has Been Prosperous.

Between two and three hundred members of the Presbyterian church and congregation assembled in the church parlors last evening on the occasion of the annual reunion and home gathering. This annual reunion is the chief social event of the year in the church and no more successful or pleasant one was ever held than the one of last evening.

It was the "Harvest Home" festival of the church and this idea characterized all the appointments making a delightful innovation. Even the decorations in the large basement dining room, where the long tables were laid, were eloquent reminders of the harvest season.

Novel Decorations. These decorations, which were the handwork of the young people of the church, were especially artistic and effective. The large pillars were wound with trailing vines in the brilliant hues of autumn and the deep window benches were massed with branches of autumn foliage, great yellow pumpkins, carrots and ears of corn. Pyramids of these same bright-hued products of harvest time also adorned the tables, alternating with large bouquets of cut flowers, asters and sweet peas in delicate tints and the flaming scarlet salvia being the principal flowers used.

New England Supper. Even the bountiful repast itself was in perfect accord with the spirit of the evening. Instead of the customary banquet menu, an old-fashioned New England supper was served, the feast of good things including such appetizing substantials as baked beans and brown bread, cold meats, hot potatoes, cabbage, salad, jellies, pickles, coffee and doughnuts. For dessert a piece of spiced pumpkin pie with cheese was served and the supper gave the best of satisfaction.

Those Who Served. The service of the feast was faultless. The Ladies Aid Society had charge of all the supper arrangements and saw that the kitchen machinery ran so smoothly that no one knew of its existence, save by results and the tables were waited on prettily and effectively by a committee of the young boys and girls of the church.

Splendid Music. During the entire supper, excellent music was furnished by the Soverlill Sisters' orchestra, this organization of talented sisters playing delightfully. The program of selections rendered was very fine and added immensely to the pleasure of the evening.

The Postprandial. Following the supper came a part of the evening's program which was fully as enjoyable, the postprandial responses all being exceptionally good. Rev. J. T. Henderson, pastor of the church, presided as toast master and his introductory remarks were happily chosen, being one of the most entertaining features of the occasion.

In his opening talk he said that he did not feel that any words of welcome were necessary because everyone was present in the dual capacity of host and guest. If there were to be any word of welcome however, he wished to speak it for he dared not, for his own reputation, ask anyone who could do it better and he would not, for the sake of the people, ask anyone who could do it worse. During the evening Rev. Henderson found occasion to tell several amusing stories.

The Year's History. "A Look Backward" was the toast assigned Mrs. A. A. Jackson and in an especially bright and happy manner she gave a brief review of the church work for the past year. Among the interesting statistics was the fact that there had been a net gain of twenty in the church membership. So famous had the church become that applications for specimens of model members had been received from various parts of the United States and even from Canada. At one communion service, nine of the eleven members received were men and on two occasions a whole family had been received into the church. During the year three members have died, James Mount, Mrs. Sarah Mead and Lynn Newell. Touching tribute was paid the memory of each, especially of James Mount, who served the church as elder for many years. The work of the Sunday school, Christian Endeavor society, Junior Endeavor society and the Ladies' Aid Society were all touched upon, each department showing growth. The Ladies' Aid society had raised nearly $800 and had paid $400 on the manse mortgage.

From Across The Sea. Alexander Galbraith was called upon to give some of his impressions of Scottish church and his response was one of the best of the evening. He had a fund of good stories that were new and he told them well. He and his wife had attended church in London, Edinburgh and Aberdeen and had heard Rev. John McNeill, the Scottish surgeon, and Rev. Hugh Black, who is so popular that every Sunday evening hundreds of men are turned away from his church. They had attended the coronation service. Among the things which impressed him were the inspiring congregational singing and the large proportion of men in the congregations.

Plea For Friendliness. I. F. Workendyke responded very happily to "The Social Life of the Church." He made a strong plea for more friendliness and a more general mixing by the older members of the church among those who are comparatively new comers. Introductions should be dispensed with in the church and each take part in making the church a place of sociability. The older members should take pains to make the young people feel that they are necessary to the church, giving them something to do being the solution of the problem of holding them in the church.

A Witty Rhyme. The most original response of the evening was "The New Man" given by Miss Emma Paulson. The response was in rhyme and was very clever, Miss Paulson being frequently interrupted by laughter and applause. According to her "vision" this "new man" is soon to take woman's place in the work of the church.

Glances Forward. The last response of the evening was "A Look Outward" in which Edward Rager made a very eloquent plea for the higher and better life. There is no bar to the good in man's life, he claimed. He has the best thought of the past and the best hope for the future. There is great power for good in every life if it is consecrated to noble purposes and he urged each one to take the outward look with the intention of making the future a benediction to their fellow men and a glory to God and his church.

The Goodnight Word. After the singing of one verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" by the company, the Rev. J. T. Henderson pronounced the benediction and an adjournment was taken to the parlors where a short social session brought the pleasant evening to a close.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS. Be care and use that old well-tried remedy, Mrs. WISELOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children's coughing, it soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. See a bottle.

Spare the Rod. (From the London Chronicle.) In Wisconsin, U. S. A. a bill has been passed inflicting a fine on fishermen who exaggerate the extent of their catch. Surprise and pain our bosoms rack, And mortified we feel, 'Tis time to stand upon our rights, My brethren of the reel. The tales we told—know it well—Want pruning now and then, But say, are we, and only we, imagination men?

Is Jones the boast of drivers at go? That travelled out of sight? Is Smith to prate of how he shot Those woodcock left and right? Shall Brown's excited fancy play—Upon his infant son, And all the marvels be performed Though his age is one?

And shall there be no check for Brown No tax on Jones's myths? And shall our legislators pass Unmoved those yarns of Smith's? Shall such as these say what they please.

While we must stand a fine? Not only those who know it should Be taught to draw the line.

THE OLD FAMILY WOODPILE.

A Feature of Life Formerly Which is of Special Interest Now.

"As homely as a woodpile used to be a common expression," said a man who had just read something about the advance in the price of wood; "but I tell you now a woodpile would look very cheerful to some of us."

"There was no strike to affect fuel when we burned wood; at least not where I lived. A man was known in those days by his woodpile."

"When you saw a long pile in a back yard early in the season, it was a sure indication that the owner was generous and a good neighbor. When you saw a measly load of wood of all lengths heaped up in confusion, it was a sure sign of a measly man."

"An honest pile of wood was 4 feet wide, 4 feet high and 8 feet long, or 128 cubic feet. That was a cord. The honest woodchopper's wagon was made to hold a cord, but the man who bought the wood did his own measuring, or had it done in the back yard."

"The amount of wood laid in by a man in good circumstances depended upon the number of fires in his house and upon the climate in which he lived. The average family in a climate where the winters were severe burned about twenty cords of wood during cold weather. The wood was usually delivered and stacked before the 1st of November."

"The laying in of the winter wood by a man who understood his business was not a haphazard transaction. There was a stipulation for so much hard and so much soft wood."

"The hard wood was hickory and oak, where it could be obtained; the soft, ash, poplar, walnut or hackberry. The soft wood when seasoned burned quickly, and was used principally in stoves."

"The hickory was used mostly in the old fashioned fire places, because, as we used to say, it kept fire. In other words, it burned slowly and gave out a more uniform heat than the quick burners."

"In contracting for the winter supply it was always stipulated that a certain number of logs, that is, cuts in the cord length, unsplit, should be delivered. These logs were sawed or chopped into lengths that would fit in the back of the fire places, and were put on early in the evening, so as to get under way by the time the family retired."

"The head of the house or his servant covered the backlog, as it was called; if the backlog was what a backlog should be it would be a solid mass of live coal, and this was the starter of the fire for the day."

"In the days when wood was chopped instead of being sawed the chips were utilized as burners, mostly in the stoves, and care was taken in laying in wood to get that which would yield good chips in the chopping. There was a great difference in wood in this respect."

"The man who sold wood had to be square with his customers in delivering just what was contracted for. If he undertook to sneak in a few cuts of green elm or sycamore they were thrown out when the wood was corded. You couldn't fool a good housekeeper with wood that sobbed, as green elm and hickory did."

"The good housewife also had a good deal to say about the sort of wood that was laid in. Not only on account of the readiness with which the wood burned, but on account of the ashes it produced."

"The ashes were used in these days in the making of soap. In the back yard of every well-regulated household there was an ash hopper. The ashes were dumped into this and by being wet down they produced a lye essential in producing a certain kind of soap which was considered necessary in the household."

"But the old woodpile, like a good many other things, has had its day. There was one other thing in connection with the old woodpile which it is not so pleasant to remember. It was the place of judgment in families where there were negroes or recalcitrant children."

"I never knew why, but in the old days when the head of the household felt himself called upon to chastise a servant or his child, he took him behind the woodpile. And when a father wanted to emphasize a threat he usually said:

"I will lead you behind the woodpile if you don't mind."—New York Sun.

They are curing Bright's Disease and Diabetes in California. The percentage of efficiency (recoveries) in these hitherto incurable diseases averages as high as 87 per cent. The details of the investigation and demonstration of the new compounds are so conclusive that we at once sent for a bundle of the reports and for the new treatment for urgent cases in this city. ## BIG OUTPUT OF CRUSHED STONE

WORK AT THE KNICKERBOCKER PLANT NIGHT AND DAY.

TWENTY-FIVE CARS EACH DAY

An Accident to the Steam Pump Forced the First Shut-Down for Repairs.

Yesterday an accident to the machine forced the Knickerbocker crusher plant to shut down for the first day in many weeks from such a cause. A cylinder head in the steam pump was blown out and it was impossible to secure a large enough stream of water to keep the plant in operation. As soon as the head of water falls below a certain point it is impossible to continue the work of screening properly, and consequently the plant lay idle all day while repairs were being made.

Large Output. Throughout the summer the output of the plant has been twenty-five cars a day, all of which is shipped direct to Chicago. The only serious hindrance which has been encountered in the past was the inability of the railroad company at one time to furnish enough cars to handle the sand. But it only requires ten men to operate the entire plant. The process is so completely mechanical that the men are required only to aid in loading the cars and keeping the machinery in running order.

Well Lighted. Every part of the factory, and even the sand pit from which the sand is secured is illuminated by a system of arc and incandescent lights, so that even at night the out-of-door part of the process can be continued. On Saturday nights the force has generally stopped work at twelve o'clock, while through the week, the day's work is a full twelve hours.

Leave Chicago 12 Noon. Arrive New York 8 a. m.

Chicago time, going through in twenty hours on The Pennsylvania Special made up of a club car with bath and barber shop, dining car, drawing room and compartment sleeping cars, and entirely new observation car. A. G. P. Agt., South Clark street, Chicago, will answer inquiries on the subject.

WOMEN'S NAMES ARE REGISTERED

LARGE LISTS ARE FURNISHED
BY SCHOOL TEACHERS.

SHOULD CONSULT THE LISTS

Women Are Advised to See if Their Names Have Been Registered.

Upwards of two thousand women are registered in the various precincts of the city and are now qualified to vote. Comparatively few of these gave their personal attention to the matter, many of those who were willing to do so relying on the fact that the school teachers had offered to assist the board of education in this first task of registration for the women. The Gazette publishes the complete list of the women who were registered through the efforts of the teachers. It is suggested that every woman in the city should see for herself whether her name is on the list as it was impossible for the teachers in the short time given them to secure the names of all the eligible women voters. Omissions, though unintentional, were bound to occur, and the woman who does not find her name on the list has only to attend to the matter personally on the next day of registration, Tuesday, Oct. 28. The lists, as made by the teachers, represent a vast amount of labor on their part and are as follows:

INSPECT PLANT OF MARZLUFF CO.

STOCKHOLDERS GO OVER WORKS AND HEAR REPORT.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS MADE

Mr. Marzluff Says He Will Even Increase Capacity Still Further.

Last evening an informal meeting was held of the preferred stockholders of the F. M. Marzluff shoe company. At that meeting which took place on the third floor of the old cotton mill building, which is now occupied by the Marzluff company, about thirty of the stockholders were present. A report was given by A. E. Matheson of the facts which he had ascertained regarding the condition of the company, and another by Mr. Marzluff of the actual financial transactions of the concern, and of the output, and proposed extensions of the plant.

Those who were present were enthusiastic regarding the reports which were made and several spoke very highly of the faithfulness with which Mr. Marzluff had fulfilled his pledges to the citizens. The output of the plant exceeded that which had been guaranteed, and such a prosperous condition had been reached that arrangements were being made looking to the lease of two more floors of the cotton mill building.

Capacity To Be Increased.
In the report which was made by F. M. Marzluff it was shown that the present capacity of the plant was about 200 pairs of shoes a day, all of which found a ready market. The machinery employed was of the latest and most perfected type, and the entire equipment was that of a high grade factory. It was hoped however to increase the output at an early date to 350 pairs a day, and with that object negotiations were now under way to secure the remainder of the building of which the third floor only is now in use.

During the discussion which followed the two reports, the information was elicited that between seven and eight thousand dollars' worth of the preferred stock was still unpaid for by the citizens who had subscribed at the time that stock buyers were called for. The matter appeared to be merely an oversight on the part of some of the holders, who had forgotten that their payments were due some time since.

Carries Heavy Life Insurance

Mr. Matheson made in his report a general statement of all the facts of interest to the stockholders regarding the condition of the company. To act with F. M. Marzluff and Fred Rau, Jr., who were the incorporators of the company, Levi B. Carle was named as trustee and M. G. Jeffris as referee. The division of the stock into common and preferred, the latter bearing six per cent, payable semi-annually, was stated, as well as the life insurance to the amount of $25,000 carried in the name of F. M. Marzluff, payable to L. B. Carle to insure the stockholders against loss.

A detailed inventory, dated Oct. 2, of the assets, liabilities and stock accounts was also presented. The common stock is left in the possession of Messrs Marzluff & Rau, but is pledged for the protection of the preferred stock, owned by Jansville citizens.

Building Illuminated

Mr. Marzluff had the entire floor brightly lighted and the attendants at hand to show the machinery and equipment to the stockholders before the meeting was called. J. M. Whitehead then took the chair and called the assemblage to order. After the reports had been heard and a general discussion had taken place, a committee consisting of L. B. Carle, S. B. Smith, and M. G. Jeffris was named to set the date for another meeting at which a board of directors will be elected.

NOVEL BUILDING IN SPRING BROOK

Construction of the Cement Post
Factory's Drying Room Began from the Center.

It sounds like a ridiculous style of building, but at the cement post factory they are constructing the dryer from the inside out instead of beginning with the walls. Considerable progress has been made on the mechanical part of the interior, but the brick exterior has not yet begun, although the foundation was completed some time ago.

For drying and screening the sand to be used in composition of the cement, an elaborate system of elevators, screens and heaters will be erected, all enclosed in a framework of brick, resembling a brick-lined boiler from the outside. There will be so little vacant space in the drying building, which is wholly disconnected from the main plant, that it was decided to build from the inside in order to facilitate the construction.

Rails for the north side-track of the factory have been laid, but the ballasting has not yet been taken up. All that has been done so far is to furnish tracks which will allow the use of hand cars for transporting material for the building which is going on.

Mrs. John Rutherford

Funeral services for the late Mrs. John Rutherford were held from the home, 205 South Bluff street this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and were largely attended. Rev. A. H. Harrington, rector of Christ church, officiated and the song service was beautifully rendered by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Christine Hawley, Mrs. C. S. Putnam, William Ruger and Harry P. Robinson. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery, the pall bearers being John Jones, R. M. Bostwick, D. M. Harless and James Marlowe.

Julia Marlowe made a hit in "The Queen of Sheba" at Boston.

SECURES LARGE CONTRACT

Fred E. Green Will Place Heating System in 300-Room Hotel

Fred E. Green has just been awarded the contract for the heating of a large hotel at Fox Lake. The transaction was of considerable moment as the building contains three hundred rooms, known as Howard's "Hotel Mineola." Mr. Green secured the order against strong competition; heating firms from Elgin, Chicago, and Milwaukee were also bidders.
Mr. Green is building up a wide reputation for excellent work and points with considerable pride to a number of recent jobs either completed or in process, among them a steam heating plant and plumbing for the Hotel Cornucopia, steam and plumbing for the new St. Paul depot, steam and plumbing for the new city hall, heating and plumbing for W. F. Palmer's new residence and the heating and plumbing for the new residence to be erected for George R. Barker.

Mr. Green is figuring on several other contracts in this part of the state and the coming season points at present to being the largest in point of business of any in his career.
At a cost of $1,200 Mr. Green has made the purchase of two large portable gasoline machines which are used to furnish power in both plumbing and steam-fitting work. One of these machines is now in daily use at the new St. Paul railway depot and is attracting much attention.

ONLY ONE MORE REGISTRY DAY

VOTERS GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28.

LITTLE PERSONAL INTEREST

The Majority of Voters, Men and Women, Depend on Some One Else.

Only a few have considered it worth while to go in person to the registration booths during the past two days. The women especially have been an almost unknown quantity to the registration boards. At one place one woman came personally, at another, two, and at no place did more than a dozen appear. Several hundred names were handed in, however.

Not In Person
Evidently most of the voters of the city took it for granted that their names would be transferred from last year's lists and so did not attend to the matter for themselves. The members of the registration boards were busily occupied during the time in copying the names from the old lists, and noting such changes as had been recently made.

Two Closed Yesterday
The registration places for the first precincts of the First and Second wards were closed last night at eight o'clock, and did not re-open today, as there were less than three hundred voters enrolled in these precincts at the last elections. All of the other places will continue open until eight o'clock tonight, and it will make the work at the next registration, on Oct. 28, far less difficult if everyone sees that his name is properly enrolled at this time.

WENT TO ROCKFORD AND WERE MARRIED

Miss Grace King and Will Gifford
Surprise Their Friends, and Are Surprised in Turn.

Miss Grace King and Will Gifford, popular young people of this city, decided to avoid the publicity of a five days' marriage license, and yesterday morning they quietly stole away to Rockford where the license and ceremony were furnished without unnecessary delay.

When they returned last evening there was a double surprise. At the home of the bride about thirty relatives were assembled to greet the young people and wish them God-speed on the journey of life. The guests were pleasantly entertained and Mr. and Mrs. Gifford fully appreciated the cordial welcome which came to them as a glad surprise.
Mrs. Gifford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. King of South Main street, and Mr. Gifford is a Jansville boy. The young people have a host of friends in the city and congratulations were freely extended. They have commenced housekeeping in the good old-fashioned way in a home that was in waiting at 69 Pearl street.

PLEASANT DANCE AT ASSEMBLY HALL

Y. P. S. of Trinity Church Opens the Season with a Harvest Home Social.

Assembly hall was the scene of a very pretty party last evening when the first of the season's series of dances was given by the Y. P. S. of Trinity church. For four years this society has enjoyed the reputation of giving pleasant and successful parties and if the one of last evening may be taken as a forecast, the coming season bids fair to surpass all preceding ones.

There was a large attendance of dancers, fully 125 couples being present. They were all dancers too, and Smith's orchestra furnished such irresistible music that almost the entire company was on the floor for every dance. Not contented with that, encores were frequently demanded and given.

The large hall was prettily decorated with pink and green bunting, the colors of the society. Cornstalks and autumn leaves in front of the orchestra stand and on the balcony railing gave the decorative touches which characterized the party as the annual Harvest Home festival.

Credit for the success of the party is due the efficient committees. Will Drummond and Ernest Knelp had charge of the general arrangements and took charge of the floor. These two gentlemen were assisted by Misses Maud Knippenberg and Helen Melsner on the decoration committee.

THE GRACE CAMERON COMPANY

A New Comic Opera Entitled, "A Normandy Wedding."

The very first offering that that most satisfactory of all light opera purveyors, Fred C. Whitney, will make this season will be the Grace Cameron opera company in the new comic opera from the French by J. Cheever Goodwin and William First, entitled, "A Normandy Wedding."

With new scenery and costumes and a most elaborated production and supported by a strong musical organization, Miss Grace Cameron, the newest of light opera stars will be heard, at the Myers Grand on Tuesday, Oct. 14.

So great has been Mr. Whitney's success with Lulu Glaser in "Dolly Varden" that he has become convinced that the public are eager to accept handsome women who can sing and act, as stars, and from all the ranks of the singing sopranettes of the stage he has selected Grace Cameron as being the next in line. He had watched her brilliant advancement from the Bostonians three years ago to the leading support of Jerome Sykes with whom she shared the honors in "Foxy Quiller" last season.

That Mr. Whitney made no mistake, is evidenced by the remarkable and instantaneous success that followed Miss Cameron from the very first performance of "A Normandy Wedding." Harry Brown is the principal comedian of the company.

"The Sultan of Sulu" a Musical Satire
One of the operative novelties soon to be seen here is the merry musical satire, "The Sultan of Sulu" by humorist George Ade, of "Fables in Slang" fame, and Alfie. G. Wathall, the talented Chicago composer. This novel operative production, which attracted such favorable attention during its initial run of three months in Chicago last spring, is making a brief tour in a limited number of western cities prior to being taken to New York for a big Broadway production. Mr. Ade's witty satire and humorous lyrics garlanded by Mr. Wathall's tuneful score containing twenty-four distinct musical numbers have been embodied and embellished in the finest company and most extravagant environment of scenery and costumes that Mr. Savage and his large corps of assistants could furnish. The production will be presented here with the same superb company that will be seen in New York, insuring the best possible performance.

LA FOLLETTE TO BE HERE ON MONDAY

WILL SPEAK ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES AT OPERA HOUSE.

DEFINITE PLANS NOT MADE

May Speak Elsewhere the Same Day,
Before Arriving in This City.

On Monday evening next Governor Robert M. LaFollette will greet his Jansville friends and will deliver a speech on the issues of the campaign at the Myers Grand Opera House. Just what time the Governor and his wife and Chief Executive Clerk, Al. Rogers, will arrive is not known but when it is, arrangements will be perfected for an informal reception by the faithful for those who wish to greet the state's chief executive, either before the speech or just after it.

Word By Telephone
Night before last Dr. Roberts, State Veterinarian, received a telephone message from Chief Clerk Rogers, stating that the Governor was planning to come to Jansville on Monday and asking whether the republicans here preferred an evening or an afternoon meeting. Dr. Roberts saw as many of the county committee as possible and telephoned back for the governor to come in the evening.

Plans Are Made
No definite plans were made for the arrival or reception of the Governor aside from engaging the Opera house and the Imperial band to play for the occasion. The final arrangements are being left until a meeting this evening at which it is hoped that County Chairman Nolan may be present.

May Speak In Afternoon
Dr. Roberts is of the opinion that the Governor is planning to either speak in Evansville, Stoughton or perhaps Beloit in the afternoon and that he will probably arrive here on the seven o'clock train and leave at eleven for Madison. He will know the final arrangements later.

Interest in the match play by the lady golfers of the Jansville club for the Valentine trophy has been lessened by the fact that the competition has been repeatedly postponed on account of the weather. Yesterday afternoon the first round was played with only three pairs entered. Only two of these pairs contested for honors as Miss Lizzie Schickler forfeited to Miss Catharine Field.

Of those who played, Miss Eloise Nowlan, with a handicap of 15, defeated Miss Agnes Shumway, handicap 12, by a score of two up and Miss Helen Field, handicap 12, won from Miss Belle McLean, with the same handicap, one up. The semi-finals in the event will be played next Tuesday afternoon. One of the next contestants, Misses Eloise Nowlan, Helen Field and Catherine Field, will draw a bye and the other two will play the semi-final match.

MRS. HELENA BLAU,

Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

TEN thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women who Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

Mrs. Helena Blau.

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'woman's best friend' and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

The woman who has suffered from female weakness should do nothing within reason to secure health. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who hold operations and cutting in horror—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a chance to build up the wasted and diseased tissue. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

Any woman who is silently suffering untold pains because she is too sensitive to undergo a physician's examination and treatment can find no excuse for not securing relief when Wine of Cardui is offered to her. There is no publicity to deter her. She can take Wine of Cardui in the privacy of her home, with as much assurance of a final cure as though a dozen doctors recommended it. Many physicians do recommend Wine of Cardui to their patients.

Why not get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

TESTIMONY FROM LEADING DRUGGISTS

The following testimony speaks for itself. It is a matter of humanity to tell everybody with a skin disease about this medication.

Astonishing quick and complete cures of all varieties of skin diseases by D. D. D. have been fully verified in nine cases out of every ten that have come under our observation. In every case it did its work in 3 to 6 weeks time. It is to our knowledge the most wonderful curative agent in all Materia Medica for diseases of the skin. Its results are marvelous; some cases of years' standing were cleared away in a few days almost before our eyes.

We give this public acknowledgment in response to a request from the D. D. D. Company as to our honest opinion of this medication. We have no hesitancy in expressing ourselves positively concerning it, as its efficacy has been proven to us beyond the possibility of doubt.

GEO. E. KING President.

PEOPLES DRUG CO., Main and Milwaukee Sts.
GEO. E. KING & CO., Jackson and Milwaukee Sts.

D. D. D. is now used by every family physician who has investigated it. It is used by the greatest skin specialists in the country. It is used in the Cook County Hospital, Chicago. It will clear away any parasitic break in the skin in from 3 to 60 days time. It is a medical triumph. In Eczema, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Itching Piles and all skin affections, in the invariable success this local treatment proves it is a skin parasite that causes the trouble and that it is not the blood that is to blame.

D. D. D. clears it all away—absolutely and quickly, too. The above druggists will fill mail orders on receipt of price—$1.00 a bottle. Compounded for druggists everywhere by the D. D. D. Company, 70 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Prices are now the lowest in every department.

CITY MAKES MOVE FOR CLEAN ALLEYS

Garbage Cans Are Put in Place for Collection of All Sorts of Rubbish.

Janesville's alleys were given a surprise party yesterday afternoon when Dr. R. W. Edden, the city health officer, and Alderman Walter Rice placed eight new garbage cans in the West side alleys. This is the first installment of the cans recently ordered by the common council, at the suggestion of the health officer, and the balance of the order will be placed in east side alleys as soon as the cans are completed.

For All Rubbish

The garbage cans are made of galvanized iron and are large, having a capacity of about six bushels. They are to be used for all kinds of garbage and refuse by all people in the blocks which open on the alley. The aldermen and the health officer will see that the cans are kept in good condition and that they are emptied when filled. It is hoped by this method that the alleys may be kept clean, thus greatly improving the sanitary condition of the city as well as its appearance.

Where Placed

The cans distributed yesterday were placed at the rear of the following places of business: Burpee block, Williams block, on the south side of Milwaukee street; Mitchell block, Patterson block, Furey & Casey blocks, Skelly & Wilbur's store, Williams block on the north side of Milwaukee street and the American Express company.

NOTORIOUS CHARACTER IS DEAD

Samuel Arnold, Convicted of Aiding in Lincoln Assassination.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 8.—Samuel Arnold, 72 years old, who was convicted in 1865 of participation in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, is dead at his home at Masonville, Anne Arundel county. Arnold, along with Dr. Mudd, Frank McLaughlin and others, was tried and convicted in Washington during Andrew Jackson's term of office. Arnold and Mudd were sent to the Dry Tortugas for life, but were pardoned by President Johnson after he had been acquitted in the impeachment trial. All efforts to get Arnold's story of the incident leading up to the tragic death of President Lincoln were futile. "I have prepared a statement which will exonerate me from guilt which will be given to the world after my death," was all he would say concerning the tragedy.

MATCH TRUST IS REACHING OUT

American Company Seeks to Control Concerns in Europe.

Copenhagen, Oct. 8.—The conquering diamond match trust is going farther afield than any other American trust. It now intends to capture the match trade of Germany, Switzerland and Sweden. President Barber is expected in Stockholm soon to negotiate with the Swedish manufacturers. It is reported that if they decline to join, the trust will crush them by cutting prices, as it did the English manufacturers.

JUDGE I. H. CALDWELL IS DEAD

There are three other children also surviving.

Drought in Australia

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 8.—The September rains have been insufficient to relieve the suffering caused by the drought, cattle are dying by wholesale, the wheat crop is ruined and the wool crop in New South Wales is estimated at only $2,000,000 (about $10,000,000).

Jealous Bomb Thrower

Congressman Groat Is Dead

Kirby, Vt., Oct. 8.—Former Congressman William W. Groat died after a lingering illness of six weeks. His death was caused by malarial fever and complications.

Violate Factory Law

Chicago, Oct. 8.—M. Born & Co., tailors, have been held guilty in Justice Sovern's court of violating the state factory law prohibiting the employment of children.

"The Secret Dispatch"
It is seldom that so effective a scenic effect is presented on the stage as the explosion of the military mine in act two of "The Secret Dispatch." It is realistic to the last degree and naturally brought about, not lugged in for noise to fill in a weakness of the drama. This is one of Mr. David Higgins' best points as a writer of plays. He doesn't write around effects. They are there for the reason that they belong there and are a part of and incidental to the story. His plays are plays first and scenic productions afterwards. Strip them of their effects and you still have a good play. Few writers of melodrama can say so much. This strong play will be presented by the metropolitan cast complete in every detail at the Myers Opera House, Oct. 9.

Attempts Suicide

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 8.—H. C. Lewis, aged 69, of Niantic, Ill., is lying at the City hospital in a dangerous condition from the effects of strychnine taken with suicidal intent, and a stab wound in his stomach.
